Sorry for last weeks live stream which didn't go quite according to plan.

Thanks to the Audio Visual team who tried very hard to show us Brian being baptised. Martin appeared to be calming swimming along but his feet were paddling madly under water.

The cameras froze and couldn't be persuaded to switch from one camera to the other so we could only see the worship team and speaker and then the laptop froze and Dick struggled to keep up with the words in one song....

Well done chaps!
